Throng from New York at Atlantic City for Holiday

Arrivals More Numerous Than Those From Philadelphia—Charity Ball Held for Poor Children—Hotel Men From Pacific Coast at Resort.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 26.
THERE have been more New York folk in the resort this week than there were in any week of the summer. In fact, the arrivals from New York were more numerous than Philadelphia's representation, and the number of city considers Atlantic City its own. There also are heavy bookings for Christmas and New Year's day.

A charity ball for the poor children of the city took place to-night at the Ambassador Hotel.

The Ritz-Carlton has received a score of Kentucky saddle horses for the use of its patrons on the beach.

Hotel men from the Rocky Mountains and the Pacific Coast were entertained by the Atlantic City Hotel Men's Association to-night. The visitors are members of the "Coast to Coast See America First" band that is visiting the principal cities of the country. They are to be entertained at the Traymore, the Ambassador, the Breakers, the Alamo, the El Comodoro, the Ritz-Carlton and other hotels.

Among the recent hotel arrivals from New York are:

Dennis—Mrs. F. H. Ross, Mr. Gerald Ross, Mrs. W. J. Crowder, Miss Crowder, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Frye, Mrs. L. Downey, Miss Mary J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Paul, Miss Mabel L. Leitch, who was accompanied by Miss Florence B. Halsey of Bridgehampton, L. I.; Mrs. Mary E. Magrane, Miss Edith L. Britt, Mrs. William Henry Blackburn, Miss M. L. O. Marlborough-Blenheim—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pitou, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Battle, Miss Dorothy Battle, Mr. and Mrs. R. I.

Holiday Dinner Parties at Hotels and Restaurants

Fetes in Keeping With the Celebration of Thanksgiving—Festive Day Also Enjoyed.

Thanksgiving Day dinners and supper parties were held at all the hotels and restaurants. Special fetes in keeping with celebration of the nation's feast day also were enjoyed by the patrons.

It is said more than six tons of turkeys were consumed at the hotels of the Bloomer chain. This included the Thanksgiving dinner which was given by L. M. Bloomer for the employees and their families.

At Keen's English Chop Houses at both West Forty-fourth street and West Thirty-sixth street a real old fashioned Thanksgiving was celebrated. From noon until 9 o'clock the managers furnished turkey at a moderate price. Music entertained the diners.

Cavalier Oreste Gholito, who has just returned from Italy after being decorated by the Italian Government for his war record, has opened the largest chain of Italian restaurants in New York. He has carried out the decorative scheme so that his restaurants at 122 West Forty-eighth street and 108 West Forty-ninth street resemble villas and dining places of his birthplace.

At Murray's Roman Gardens M. H. Cox, the manager, engaged the services of Harry Tucker's orchestra for a limited period.

The Cafe Boulevard, at Forty-first street, just east of Broadway, has been completely refurbished and decorated. John Marcano's orchestra plays for dancing.

One-time President Woodrow Wilson's chef, Pierre Soscane, now holds forth at Frawley's Restaurant, at 2160 Broadway, corner Seventy-sixth street. The restaurant, which formerly was known as Maison Dore, is popular for luncheons, afternoon teas and dinners. Joseph Frawley, the proprietor, formerly was at the Campus.

Veda Varavova of the Russian Imperial Ballet made her first appearance last Wednesday at the new Grace Field Club Restaurant, at Seventy-seventh street, between Broadway and Seventh avenue. Supported by a good cast, she gave a pantomime entitled "The Magic Fool."

The Hotel Bristol, at 129 West Forty-eighth street, because of its quiet, restful surroundings is popular with patrons.

Miss Betty Mudge has joined the circle of entertainers at the Cafe des Beaux Arts, 50 West Fortieth street. Each afternoon she presides as hostess at the tea dance held at the art studio club at the top of the building. Miss Egan-Barrois Fontaine in her programme of exotic dances and Mlle. Lenore Kern continue to please their audiences nightly. The Parisian dinners are a specialty at the cafe.

It long has been held a canon in orchestras—especially the small ones—there could not be two cornets and two trombones played simultaneously without resulting discords and a lack of harmony. Ted Lewis at his club, however, has worked out the way two cornets and two trombones can be used in his orchestra. The club is named after the performer. Good music, good food and dancing are the offerings, to which is added entertainment by Ted Lewis himself.

COLDS

"Pape's Cold Compound" is Quickest Relief Known

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and sniffing! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up a cold and ends all grippe misery.

"Mérode" is hand-tailored Underwear!

THE BEAUTY of truly hand-tailored underwear depends on many factors and conditions found only in the making of "Mérode."

The experience of thirty years by a master craftsman; the work of carefully trained operators; the best materials obtainable; the most rigid inspection from first to last—all these combine to make underwear whose unvarying high quality never fails to give satisfaction.

"Mérode" garments are cut out one at a time by hand—not in dozens by machinery—they follow their patterns accurately every time, and the patterns are based on years of study of human models. The result is perfect-fitting underwear! Fine, firmly-knit materials, smooth Flatlock seams, dainty finishing in every way, make "Mérode" both comfortable and attractive.

Models in union suits and separate garments suitable for high or low dress—in cotton, merino and silk mixtures. For women, girls and boys and babies.

"Mérode" is also made for men—a distinct advance in men's underwear. Many new features never before perfected contribute to perfect fit—and comfort that is a joy. It is a union suit of real style and comes in all sizes, styles, and weights.

"Mérode" is now selling at prices greatly below those of last fall. At leading shops.
